OUR STUDENTS ARE GETTING SPOOKY IN THE CLASSROOM

Our students are getting in the mood for Halloween and Day of the Dead with fun activities in their classroom and during their specialist time.

Mr. Hess' 5th grade class is channeling their mad scientists with a gooey experiment that had all the kids squealing "ewww"!

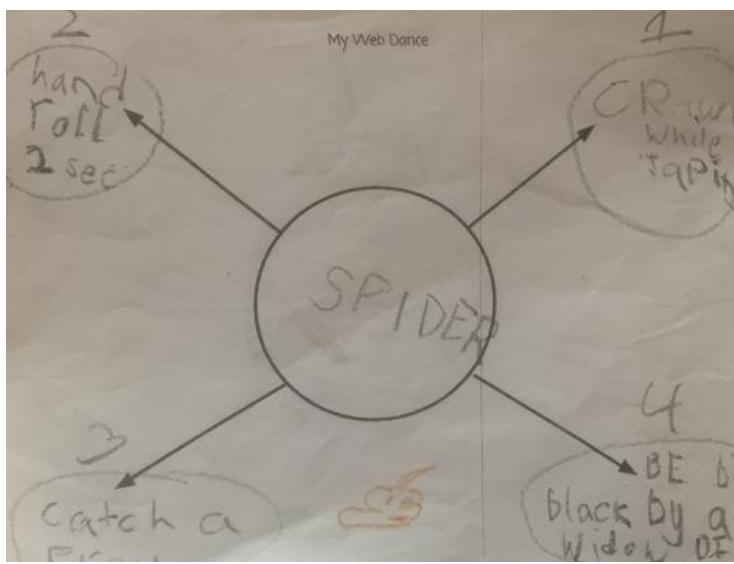

In music our 4th and 5th grade students have embark upon a creepy journey, researching the life of a composer no longer living. Their work will be displayed on a tombstone and will fill a graveyard full of legendary musicians.

In Visual Arts students in all grade levels are learning about still art and sketching subjects that celebrate the upcoming holidays.

In dance third graders were inspired by one of our favorite creepy crawlers the spider and it's web. They investigated the choreographic process by creating solo dances using mind maps, or webs. Webs were a great tool for collecting and organizing movement ideas after a theme had been chosen. Students first identified their theme, and then mapped out movement ideas and shapes before ordering them from beginning to end.

To see our 3rd graders choreographed dances visit our vimeo page:

Students are excited to show you all their displayed work at the Day of the Dead Festival on November 2nd at 5:30p.m.

You are invited to LFCSA's 7th Annual Day of the Dead Celebration
 Wednesday, November 2nd, 2016
 LFCSA Visual Arts Studio
 5:30-7:00pm

Join us in this art-filled community gathering inspired by Dia de los Muertos' traditional celebrations. Bring your flowers, cards and ofrendas to our Day of the Dead altar and let's honor our loved ones with a special remembrance.

Halloween Town is Today!

Our parent volunteers are working hard to make this fun event come together! Thank you to all of our room parents and the many volunteers who have dedicated their time to this community event. Our students can't wait to celebrate tomorrow.

Winners of our Annual Give October raffle!

The Great Shake Out Earthquake Drill

LFCSA participates in a State-wide Earthquake drill yesterday. Our teachers and students were able to practice their emergency response to a major earthquake in the classroom. Students "rolly-pollied up" for two minutes and then evacuated the building once they received the all clear.

Staff took this opportunity to practice the procedures we have put in place and then met to discuss how we did. Our Search and Rescue team were even challenged as we had some of our students pretend to be injured and lost in the building. We are happy to report everyone was located and "treated" at our first aid area. Our student actors enjoyed playing make-believe and our staff appreciated the practice.

Thank you to the parents who signed up to participate. Your feedback on the pick-up and sign out process was helpful.

What to do in case of a real emergency:

1. All our staff will be working hard to evacuate our building and make sure every child is safe, for this reason we will not be able to answer phone calls if you are trying to communicate with us during a real emergency.
2. When you come down to pick up your child, please know that it may take us some time to get your child(ren) to you. We will have staff available to greet you and give you an update. We will be working to create a safe environment for all our students before we begin the release process.
3. Only people on your pick-up list will be allowed to pick up your child. Please try to bring a photo ID with you.
4. Roads may be damaged during a real earthquake and we understand that it may take parents some time to get to the school for pick up. We have emergency backpacks full of supplies that will keep your child safe for 3 days.
5. Make a plan with your family on what you will do at home in case of a real earthquake. Ask your child to tell you some of the tips they have learned from their P.E. teacher Mr. Wenger.
